

For Immediate Release

Rebecca L. Smith Appointed Chief Executive Officer of Clarence Community & Schools Federal Credit Union

Clarence, New York – July 19, 2018 – Clarence Community & Schools Federal Credit Union announced the appointment of Rebecca L. Smith as their new CEO. Rebecca assumed the responsibilities on July 9 and succeeds Marsha Brauer, who will be retiring after 30 plus years of devoted service to the credit union movement.

“We are pleased to announce that Becky has joined our credit union team” said Joe Daigler, CCSFCU Board President. Becky has 24 years of community banking experience. She has held various positions throughout her extensive banking career including Branch Manager, Branch Administrator and most recently Deposit Compliance and BSA Officer. Becky’s vast experience in community banking continues the credit union’s core mission of “people helping people” at a local level.

Becky has a Bachelor’s degree from the State University of New York at Geneseo. Becky lives in Akron with her husband and two children and is active in the community, volunteering for the Junior Achievement Program and Akron Little League Football.

“I’m honored and grateful to the Board for the opportunity to lead this exceptional organization” said Becky Smith, CCSFCU CEO.

About CCSFCU

Clarence Community & Schools Federal Credit Union serves the Clarence, Amherst and Akron areas. CCSFCU offers a complete line of financial services including savings, loans, home mortgages, checking products as well as online and home banking services.

For more information stop by our office, call us at 716-630-0888 or visit us on the web at www.ccsfcu.com.

Rebecca L. Smith,
Clarence Community &
Schools Federal Credit
Union CEO